NWS Holdings and 10 member companies awarded Caring Company Logo Inspiring video marks 15 years of volunteer work

(10 May 2016, Hong Kong) NWS Holdings Limited (“NWS Holdings” or the “Group”; Hong Kong stock code: 659) and 10 member companies have been awarded the Caring Company Logo by The Hong Kong Council of Social Service this year (refer to list below). The Logo recognizes the Group’s commitment to corporate citizenship and concerted effort in caring for the community it serves. To mark the 15th anniversary of the Group’s corporate volunteer team NWS Volunteer Alliance and the 10th anniversary of NWS Holdings Charities Foundation, a series of ventures have been launched, including a new volunteer management system and a video to promote caring.

The Group’s General Manager of Corporate Communication Sheila Tang said mobilizing corporate resources and motivating employees to get involved are instrumental in implementing corporate social responsibility strategy. “Over the years, the NWS Volunteer Alliance has participated in a huge range of community activities, establishing a solid support network that has delivered real benefit to the underprivileged. Since 2001, our volunteers have contributed more than 140,000 hours of social service.” At the same time, the Group’s Charities Foundation has contributed over HK$18 million in support of projects spanning community welfare, environmental protection, education and health care.

Earlier this year the Group has launched a new database and volunteer management system to manage its large and expanding volunteer force. Corporate volunteers can log in anywhere and anytime to enroll in volunteer activities and specify their particular skills and areas of interest, enabling tailor-made and effective deployment of volunteers.

The Group has produced a short video featuring its staff and charitable organisation partners in the hope of inspiring others to help care in the community. The video tells the story of how the Group empowers staff from its different businesses to share the spirit of caring. The public are encouraged to do the same, making a small and simple effort to bring people warmth and smiles. The thematic elements of the video will be built into the Group’s community programmes in the coming year.
